Art Unit: 1626

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1 to 5 and claims 19 to 21 and 25 in part, drawn to compounds and compositions, classified in classes 546, 548 and 560, various subclasses.
- II. Claims 11 to 15 and claims 19 to 21 and 25 in part, drawn to compounds and compositions, classified in classes 546, 548 and 560, various subclasses.
- III. Claims 16 to 18 and claims 19 to 21 and 25 in part, drawn to compositions and compositions, classified in classes 546, 548 and 560, various subclasses.
- IV. Claim 22, drawn to a method of treating, classified in class 514, various subclasses.
- V. Claims 23 and 24, drawn to a method of inhibiting, classified in class 514, various subclasses.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are patentably distinct from one another because of their structural differences. The compounds differ in the group which is attached to the left side of the carbonyl carbon. Consequently, a reference that anticipates one of the groups would not even render obvious the remaining groups.

Art Unit: 1626

Inventions I, II and III and IV and V are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product such as the compounds disclosed in U.S. Patent 5,856,530.

In addition, the inventions are drawn to divergent subject matter and it would be a serious burden on the examiner and the patent office resources if all of the inventions were searched as separate patent, literature and computer searches would need to be done.

Claims 1 to 5 and 11 to 25 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising Examples 1 to 69. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
